

Rolling River School Division

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

IKFB – GRADUATION EXERCISES AND AWARDS

Collegiate principals will be responsible for the organization of graduation exercises in their schools. In order to maximize available instruction days for all students, graduation exercises will be scheduled no earlier than the Friday before the last day of school in June.

Engraved Rolling River School Division Medallions will be provided for a student in each Collegiate. Medallions will be awarded for highest standing in a combination of two Grade 12 ELA courses. In the event in a given year, a collegiate does not have a student with credit in two Grade 12 ELA courses, the medallion will be awarded for the highest standing in a Grade 12 ELA course. A cash award will be given by the Rolling River School Division Board of Trustees.
